

PLEASE do not allow power line transmission of digital signals. The shortwave spectrum is a vital means of information from international broadcasters, ham radio operators, and already has too many interference sources. PLEASE do not make the shortwave spectrum noisier than it is by allowing broadband digital transmission. Shortwave listening is my passion.

Thank you for reading this plea...